

The final language of the Second Amendment was 'A well regulated Militia', being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

(Okay, here is my opinion. A person should be allowed to have a gun only in the home, following a rigorous background check and proper training. No assault rifles and no guns with large capacity clips and nobody under 18. My preference would be no guns at all, but as of December 2021, there are an estimated 436.4 million guns in the United States due to crazy gun culture, so I need some protection in my home.)
